Guidance Notes for the Completion of this Application

1. Foreign citizens or companies of another State qualify to hold ownership of an aircraft registered in San Marino after electing domicile with a representative residing or legally established in San Marino.
2. This application must be signed by the beneficial owner, company director or authorised representative holding a power of attorney.
3. The nominated representative will act as an address for service with the only responsibility to transmit to the owner any notifications from the CAA.
4. When the nominated representative resigns from his/her position he/she must inform the CAA in writing. The aircraft certificate of registration could be revoked if an application nominating a new representative has not been submitted by the registered owner.
